

IRB Training (for new human participant researchers)

1. Go to <http://www.oria.cornell.edu/training/citi/login/index.cfm>. Use your Cornell NetID and password to log in and you will be directed to a training website called CITI.
2. After logging in you should see the CITI Program "Main Menu":

3. Click on "Cornell University Courses, then "Add a Course or Update Learner Groups."

4. Scroll down to Question 1: for IRB (Human Participant Research) course listings. Choose one course. Take "IRB - Basic," unless your research involves prisoners, children, international research, or biomedical procedures. In that case, pick the option you need.

Question 1

IRB (Human Participant Research)

This course is intended for students, faculty, or staff engaged in research with human participants that requires review by the Cornell Institutional Review Board (IRB). Completing any one of the courses below--with the exception of the two refreshers--will fulfill this requirement. If you have previously completed IRB training that has now expired, choose one of the two refreshers to renew your training. Choose the course option that best fits your research area. For more information, visit the Cornell IRB website: <http://www.irb.cornell.edu/>.

Choose all that apply

- IRB - Basic
- IRB - Research with Children
- IRB - Research with Prisoners
- IRB - International Research
- IRB - BioMedical Research
- IRB - Committee Members
- IRB - Basic - Refresher (for those whose basic training has expired)
- IRB - BioMedical - Refresher (for those whose biomedical training has expired)

5. Scroll down to bottom of page and click "Submit." You will be taken back to the main menu and will see the course under "Cornell University Courses."
6. Click on the course title before you can start the training modules you have to click on "Complete the Integrity Assurance Statement." Check the box that says "I AGREE," and click "Submit." You can now begin the first training module. After reading each module, you will take a quiz to test your knowledge. You must pass each quiz. If you fail a quiz, you will be shown correct answers to the questions. Then you can return to the module and re-take the quiz. You can repeat a module and quiz as many times as you need to pass.
